PART “E”-PERSONNEL
FGB 27 2016	Staffing updates The HT has looked a new the pupil intake for the next academic year. The School has already received over 30 applications. The two new classrooms will be installed for the new academic year, but this will only create one additional teaching space.

	Q-Why would we only have one additional teaching space? A-Kidzone currently takes up one teaching space. The school will have 12 classrooms and one teaching space for dual use. The dual space will be used for cooking and kidzone . The draft plan is to have the below classes: 2-Reception classes 2-Year 1 classes 2-Year 2 classes 3-Year 3 & 4 Classes 3-year 5 & 6 Classes Q-Would the school still have a joint year 5/6 next year? A-Yes, the school needs to make the best decision regarding the budget and the number of pupils in each year group. The alternative is 2 pure year group classes and one mixed and this means there is less constancy for pupils. The teachers can also work together to plan delivering of the National Curriculum. Q- I have concerns regarding pupils in Year 6 being hindered in their learning? A-This has previously worked well, as some pupils are achieving above what is expected for their age and some pupils achieve lower. The current mix of Year 3 & 4 has worked well as this stretches all pupils. There is a range of abilities in all classes weather these are mixed or not. Three teachers planning lesson can provide better support to pupils as a team. The school can also ensure pupils are grouped so that personality don't clash. Some classes are currently experiencing friction between pupils. Q-Are Pupils spilt by ability? A-No, all classes are mixed ability. Q- Do you look at the modules to be covered and then group pupil's according to this? A-No, all pupils are kept together in one class. A year 5 teacher has will be starting maternity leave from Monday 6th June. She was on a 1 year contract would finish on 31st August The Year group to be covered will depend on the candidate's experience. The school will consider a NQT or main scale teacher. The Kidzone room will be demolished in May and this will move into the rainbow room.
